

FELLOWSHIP IN INFECTIOUS DISEASES

Accredited by
Bharath Institute of Higher Education and Research (BIHER)

Dr. Rela Institute & Medical Centre (RIMC) is a 450 bedded multi-specialty quaternary care medical facility. Our Liver Transplant programme under the leadership of Prof. Mohamed Rela has performed over 1500 liver transplants. Our centre has the unique provision of both cadaveric and living donor liver transplantation.

The Infectious Disease Training Program at Dr. Rela Institute and Medical Centre is dedicated to providing the best clinical and research experience for our fellows in the context of the important social and scientific missions of the hospital. We offer a comprehensive clinical experience with a diverse patient population specifically dealing with evaluation and management of infections in immunosuppressed host.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- Acquire an advanced understanding of the aetiology, pathogenesis, diagnosis, and therapy of patients with infections ranging from community acquired infections, device related infections, hospital acquired infections, transplant evaluation, evaluation and management of infections in immunosuppressed host (solid organ, bone marrow transplant and patients on immune suppressive therapy.
- Acquire competency and knowledge in clinical infection control, management of antibiotic use and antimicrobial stewardship.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

DNB / MD (General Medicine) or Equivalent International Degrees

- Allocation of seat purely on merit basis.
Interested candidates please mail your CV to vidya.devarajan@relainstitute.com
- For further details, please contact
Dr. Vidya Devarajan - +91 - 98843 52632

Number of Available Post
1

Starting Date
1st January 2021

Course Duration
2 Years

Last Date of Application
31st December 2020