

FELLOWSHIP IN TRANSPLANT HEPATOLOGY

Accredited by
Liver Transplantation Society of India (LTSI)

Transplant Hepatology Fellow will gain expertise and experience in

- Education, knowledge, professional skills and technical proficiency in the management of patients with End stage liver disease, pre-operative evaluation and post-liver transplant care
- Various aspects of Liver transplantation (Living / deceased donor, combined liver kidney transplantation)
- Identification and clinical decision making of critically ill patients in the Liver intensive care unit
- Under standing and management of immunosuppressive therapy
- Training in therapeutic upper GI endoscopy and observation in post-transplant ERCP
- Clinical approach and management of Hepatocellular carcinoma
- Basic understanding of liver histopathology
- Concept of teamwork alongside and working closely with transplant surgeons and liver intensivists to optimise patient care
- Clinical and basic science literature analysis, writing and publications
- Research and to conduct clinical studies
- Aptitude and interpersonal skills for effective communication with peers and patients

Dr. Rela Institute & Medical Centre (RIMC) is a 450 bedded multi-speciality quaternary care medical facility. Our programme under the leadership of Prof. Mohamed Rela has performed over 3000 liver transplant surgeries. Our centre has the unique provision for both deceased and living donor liver transplantation.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

DM (Gastroenterology / Hepatology)
DNB or equivalent International degrees

Number of available posts: 2

Last date of application
15th Dec 2024

Course commencement date
1st Feb 2025

Course duration: 1 year

Selection process through interview.
Interested candidates please mail your CV to dinesh.jothimani@relainstitute.com

Ph: +91 91765 99555